LATERAL TRANSFER POLICE OFFICER POSITION

The Pittsfield Police Department is seeking highly motivated proactive police officers for lateral transfer to this department. Applicants must have active Civil Service status under M.G.L. Chapter 31 and be eligible for transfer. Officers must have successfully completed an MPTC full-time police academy, possess a Class A License to Carry Firearms, possess solid problem solving ability and have strong written and verbal communication skills. Candidates will be subject to an extensive background investigation, medical evaluation, psychological screening and oral interview.

The Pittsfield Police Department is the largest municipal police agency in Berkshire County. Full time and collateral duty special assignments include the Detective Bureau, Drug Unit, Anti-Crime Unit, Motorcycle Unit, K9, Community Outreach, School Resource Officer, DARE Officer, Field Training Program, Honor Guard, Bike Patrol, Traffic Unit and SRT.

PPD offers educational incentives to qualified applicants along with a competitive benefits package to include sick time, paid holidays and generous vacation allowances. While the base annual salary (overtime not included) for a Student Officer/Patrol Officer is $39,935.00, this figure does not account for the department's incentive schedule. The current average salary of Patrol Officers in their first 3 years of employment, including education, language and night differentials is $52,297.00 ($54,657.00 with holidays).

The City of Pittsfield is an equal opportunity employer
